Helpful Hints for You...

Read through the Convergence® 2012 Long Beach Registration Booklet with a highlighter or pen in-hand. As you review, check the classes, tours, and events that appeal to you. Note that two workshops begin on Monday, July 16, and that all other classes run concurrently Wednesday through Saturday. Tours take place Saturday, July 14 through Tuesday, July 17. Use the Worksheet on page 22 to help you plan your schedule, then proceed to the Registration Forms on pages 13 and 14. Don't forget to leave time for shopping and seeing the art exhibits.

Note: HGA membership is required for class participation.

Material Fees will be collected at the individual classes and should not be included on the Registration forms.

Registration Forms

Section A: Convergence® Value Package (CVP): This offers the best pricing for the event items, better than if the items were purchased individually. In addition, the CVP offers the opportunity to purchase classes at reduced rates.

Section B: Class Prices: Indicate the quantity of each class you have selected in the appropriate column (left column if you purchased the CVP or right column if you did not). Then print the Class Code numbers and Leader's last name in the chart. Provide notes on the registration form to help the Registration Team—like: "Yes, I want to take all of these seminars by the same leader." "If this is full is there something similar that I missed?" "If I get the first choice workshop, then I don't want seminars by the same Leader."

Section C: Convergence® Events: Purchase individual tickets to Convergence Events in this section. Note that one admission ticket to Lucy Dunne, the featured speaker, and one admission to the Fashion Show are included in the CVP.

Tours

Depart from and return to the Long Beach Convention Center, Pine Street entrance or the Westin Hotel, Ocean Blvd. entrance. Convergence 2012 Long Beach reserves the right to cancel any tour if there is insufficient registration by Thursday May 3, 2012.

Changes and Cancellations

Changes made to selections are subject to a $25 US administration fee. Cancellation refunds must be requested in writing by May 3, 2012. Cancellations are subject to the following fees: Before May 3, 2012, $75 or 1/2 the cost of fees paid, whichever is less. No request for refunds will be honored after May 3, 2012. Refunds will be processed by November 2012. Convergence® 2012 reserves the right to cancel any class. HGA membership dues are non-refundable. Tickets purchased for events (fashion show, featured speaker, dinners, conversations, etc.) are non-refundable.

Security

For your security, name tags and a form of photo identification will be required along with your admission ticket.

Photography

Supply List and Equipment Rental
